Please read the following information to ensure you are adequately aware of all the policies regarding the uniforms at BCA.

BCA believes a properly kept uniform is an important aspect of a student's responsibility. It shows self-respect and regard for one's self and helps foster school spirit. In addition, a uniform removes all pressures from peers regarding clothing and allows students to focus on school and not their attire.

As a uniform is also a reflection of the BCA and its standards, it is important that our school uniform is worn with pride and kept in a proper state.

Girls PE Skirt

- The girls PE Skirt can be purchased from the BCA Office.

Mandatory Undershirt

- BCA has implemented a mandatory undershirt for all girls. This can be purchased from the BCA Office.

Additional Guidelines

- All uniform items MUST be purchased from Cambridge Uniforms with the EXCEPTION of the girls' PE Skirts, girls' undershirts, and boys' PE pants.
- Girls' undershirts are REQUIRED in Grades 7-12 and if girls come to school not wearing one, they will be supplied with one from Office stock, which will be charged to the parent.
- Uniforms must be kept in good and clean condition.
- Uniforms that are stained, irreversibly, do not meet uniform standards.
- Uniform pants are not to be altered to make them tight or "skinny-pants".
- Boys' PE pants are to be loose fit, not skinny-style track pants.
- Uniforms are to be worn at school from 8:30 - 4:00, and during any school function.
- Ties for boys must be worn at all times, except when wearing the optional royal blue polo in spring.
- To maintain better uniformity, we ask that all girls' skirts are at a mid-calf length.
